Pilot: I was flying off through space just, minding my own business... and then suddenly (dramatic pause)

Captain: Ahhh what's that big black thing flying towards us.

Pilot: I think that's another rocket

Captain: What!

Pilot: IT'S ANOTHER ROCKET!

Captain: WA wah why are we moving?

Pilot: I think we should do evasive manoeuvres.

Captain: Haven't we already done that though?

Pilot: Maybe... dam, it just blew everything up.

Captain: What!

Pilot: It was a bomb.

Captain: Oh!

Pilot: Well... this was fun, another day another planet destroyed.
